BOOK SYNOPSIS

She would rather burn in his presence than pine in his absence Faith Wellingford Evers, Duchess of Ashedon, is tired of societys endless gossiping about her failings and her late husbands infidelities. Seeking escape one night, shes attacked by ruffians, but is saved by an unlikely figure from her past! Having risen from penniless orphan to Member of Parliament, David Tanner Smith is no longer the quiet boy Faith once knew. With the first spine-tingling kiss, their old friendship is transformed. And in its place is an explosive mix of illicit encounters and forbidden desire...
